Connie Mack Surprised at Haughton's Claim.

Philadelphia, April 23. — Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia American league baseball club, said that the claim by Percy D.

"I signed Perry while we were training in the south," said Mack. "It appears he had been playing with various tenns before coming to me and I believed he had been made a free agent by the national commission. There is nothing for me to do but await the result of the commission's action on Haughton's claim."
